

Top GM Officials on West Coast For Motorama Opening Saturday

Detroit moves to Los Angeles this week as dozens of top General Motors executives arrived for a series of events culminating in the public opening on Saturday at the Pan Pacific Auditorium of the GM Motorama of 1961.

GM Chairman Frederic G. Donner and President John F. Gordon head the list of corporation and divisional executives coming to open GM's newest Motorama "industrial spectacular" for a nine-day admission-free showing in Los Angeles.

Donner and Gordon will host a luncheon today at the Pacific Ballroom of the Statler Hilton Hotel. More than 600 local civic, business and government leaders have been invited. Both men will talk briefly.

FRIDAY morning, several hundred independent distributors of products handled by GM's AC and United Motors Service divisions will join managers of those two divisions at a breakfast at the Coconut Grove in the Ambassador Hotel. Hosts will be Joseph A. Anderson, GM vice president and general manager of AC Division and Roland Withers, general manager of UMS division.

On Friday afternoon, Donner will host a special invitation preview of the 160,000 square foot Motorama at Pan Pacific Auditorium for more than 3000 invitees and their guests.

SATURDAY morning, approximately 3500 area salesmen of GM products will be saluted at a buffet breakfast preview of Motorama in Pan Pacific Auditorium hosted by James M. Roche, GM vice president in charge of distribution.

Roche will discuss with the salesmen the reasons the cor-

City Official Installed As Head of Masonic Lodge

George C. Powell, planning director for the city, has been installed as worshipful master of Torrance Lodge No. 447, F & A M to succeed Robert Fulford, master during 1960.

Powell moved up from the senior warden's chair to become the 47th master of the lodge which was organized here in 1914.

Raymond O. Lougee, past master of the lodge, was installing officer and Thomas N. Foster, another past master, were ushers and members of Job's Daughters Bethel No. 50 were hostesses.

THE REV. William Schatz, pastor of the Seaside Community Church, gave the benediction at the close of the ceremonies.

Fulford was given a past master's apron which is a symbol of the order, and a ring containing the jewel of the past master, was presented to him as a traditional tribute of respect.

POWELL, newly installed as the master, received a gavel from his two daughters, Georgia and Lorene, who attended the affair.

Also in attendance was Mrs. Hattie Powell, mother of the new master, who was realizing a long cherished dream of seeing her only son installed as master of a Masonic Lodge.

Powell's term as head of the Torrance lodge will continue through 1961.
